"PUBLIC OPINION MUST BACK ANY SPEED FIGHT"

Judge O'Connell Tells E. B. M. A. of Legal Angle; Big Meet This Week

"A campaign against death dealing automobile accidents cannot be waged successfully unless the force of public opinion is back of it," said Judge John F. O'Connell, chief speaker at last week's luncheon meeting of the Englewood Business Men's association. Judge O'Connell presided in the speeders' court for some time and, after a brief reference to his Englewood visit last spring when he acted as judge in the beauty contest which was the culmination of the association's entertainment, he confined his discussion to the traffic problem.

"The big problem is education of the public with regard to the law, existing conditions and remedies that can be put into effect," he said. "Technically speaking, there is no such statute as a speed limitation. The 10, 15, 20, and 35 mile limits, ranging from business sections to open country in application, are enforcible only if conditions of traffic indicate that speed beyond those limits are excessive or dangerous.

Jail Criminally Inclined

"All fair-minded people are agreed that loss of life, injury to human beings, and property damage should be stopped by whatever power can be invoked. Statutes should be changed to make it possible to send to jail the criminally careless and criminally reckless, but those not criminally inclined should not be jailed.

"The time is coming when the right of moving vehicles to use the space between curbs will be more definitely recognized

"I would suggest that in some manner you endeavor to acquaint yourselves fully with all the facts of the situation," the judge concluded, "and enlist the full force of your membership in behalf of bringing about desirable changes. You will find judges in the main extremely anxious to co-operate."

Judge Francis B. Allegretti, who is now presiding in the Grand Crossing court, spoke of the responsibility business men have in community life.

"Business is the economic foundation of the country and your success will reflect the prosperity of the nation," he said, in part.

Second Largest Postoffice

That the Englewood post office, the largest station outside the loop with the sole exception of the Stock Yards branch, sends out a million dollars a year in money orders and sells $3,000 worth of stamps daily, were some of the figures given by Fred Bosworth, superintendent of the local office, who also spoke. With its district from 75th to Garfield and State to Racine, the post office serves a public of 150,000. It employes sixty-four carriers, twenty-six clerks, and two officials.

With the "fighting parson," the Rev. Elmer Williams, as the speaker, "Miss Chicago," Miss Margaret Leigh of Atlantic City bathing beauty contest fame, as the guest of honor, and what Manager Beatty of the National theater promises is "one of the best acts that ever came to Englewood" provided as specialty entertainment, Thursday's meeting of the association promises to be a particularly interesting affair, with last week's large attendance bettered.

MENTALLY DERANGED, COMMITS SUICIDE

Believed to be mentally unbalanced, Fred Lund, 46 years old, 1305 W. 59th st, committed suicide by inhaling illuminating gas in his home Sunday morning. Lund, according to the police, had been released from the Psychopathic hospital only a week previous. He ended his life by putting his head in the oven and turning on the gas. His body was found by his daughter, Mrs. Emma Gustafson, who lived at the same address.

SURFACE LINES CAUSE CHANGES IN ORDER FOR 63RD ST. PAVING

ORIGINAL PLAN OF USING ASPHALT ABANDONED; NEW ORDER TO CALL FOR CEMENT

Objections by Charles M. Haft, attorney for the Chicago Surface Lines, caused the temporary abandonment Friday of plans of the board of local improvements for the paving of W. 63rd st. from Hamlin ave. to Lavergne ave. The proposed paving with asphalt, which the railway company representative argued would necessitate laying of new rails, costing approximately $500,000, was rejected when the order of the improvement board came up in the county court.

However, the project, recently urged by the Englewood Business Men's association, is not lost. Already engineers have been assigned to the task of making estimates on the paving of the street with concrete. The section to be improved has been lengthened due to an added request for the paving of 63rd st. from Laramie ave to Central ave. Accordingly, the estimates will be made for the improvement in two sections, Hamlin ave to Cicero ave. and Cicero ave to Laramie ave.

The new order will be considered within the near future, President John J. Sloan of the board of local improvements having declared that the matter would be given immediate attention.

Advocates of the western gateway project are encouraged by the fact that no property owners appeared to file objections to the improvement and by the apparent approval of the street railway company of the newly proposed type of paving. Granite block headers for the car tracks would be used with the concrete just as with the asphalt, and the cost to the property owners would be practically the same with either material, with concrete possibly slightly higher

ENGLEWOOD POST'S NEW MEMBERS LUCKY; HAVE NO DUES UNTIL JAN. 1

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY BANQUET PLANNED; WILL OBSERVE ARMISTICE DAY

All World war veterans joining Englewood post of the American Legion before the first of next year will receive full benefits of membership for the remainder of 1924 without having to pay for them. Owing to the fact that the post's 1924 books have been closed, to make ready for the annual election of officers, which has been moved ahead a month to comply with a rule adopted at the last state convention of the Legion, new members are being given 1925 membership cards.

The election of officers will take place during the first meeting in November, instead of December, as formerly. Thus, the installation of officers will occur at the first meeting in December.

Eighteen candidates for membership were favorably passed on at he last session of the post, last Friday night Fifteen letters requesting membership have been received in the last few days.

The post's custom of staging a banquet on Washington's birthday will be followed again next year, although there was some agitation for observing the day with a dance or other form of entertainment The matter was decided definitely Friday.

Although no plans have as yet been made for Armistice day, the post will celebrate the day in practically the same manner other Illinois posts do. The state department of the Legion is working for a uniform observance of the day and to that end Englewood post is making no plans until it learns what the state department recommends. However, it is known that there will be no Armistice day dance this year, as in the past.

Not alone are members of the club and their wives who have parts in the entertainment most enthusiastic about rehearsals in their efforts to make it the best amateur program ever offered in Southtown, but the many talented persons of the community who offered their service are working earnestly The success in training the chorus composed of twenty of Southtown's prettiest girls has been especially gratifying to Delos Owen and John Carroll, of the Joe Bren Production company, who are directing the entertainment.

That more time may be devoted to rehearsals of the speaking parts of the musical comedy, "The Inside Inn," the girls have been excused from practice Friday evening at the Englewood Business college auditorium but attend the practice sessions every Monday and other Fridays until the time of the show

TWICE NUMBER OF FIRES IN WINTER MONTHS AS SUMMER

SHOULD INSPECT FLUES BEFORE STARTING FURNACE AND CLEAR RUBBISH

Very soon you will start to shovel coal into the furnace or have fires in your stoves and when you do the fire departments of Southtown will be twice as busy as they have been during the summer months.

There are double the number of fires reported in winter that there are in summer and loss through property damage caused by flames is twice as great. The "open season" for fires begins about the middle of this month and because Thursday is the fifty-third anniversary of the great Chicago fire this week has been set aside as Fire Prevention week Speakers will be sent to all the public high schools to carry the message of prevention to the students and the public will be urged to take preventive measures to decrease the great fire loss.

John T. Moynhan, chief of the 12th battalion, which with some irregularities extends from Rhodes ave west to the city limits and from 55th st. south to 95th st., thus covering most of Southtown, knows a lot about fires His advice to householders is valuable:

Bad Chimneys Frequent

"Chimney fires or fires caused by a defective chimney occur most frequently with the beginning of colder weather," said Chief Moynihan. "It is a wise practice to inspect your chimney carefully before you build fires. If the chimney is filled with soot, have it cleaned. See that there are no cracks in the brickwork that might be caused by the mortar falling out Heavy summer rains followed by excessively dry spells cause the mortar to crack and break loose. Then sparks spread out and set fire inside the walls or in the attic.

"Clean your basement thoroughly," the chief added, "and remove all waste paper from the vicinity of the furnace.

"Much loss could be avoided if people knew how to report fires. They dash madly about when a fire breaks out not knowing what to do to summon the fire department. Most fires are reported by neighbors who are not so excited as those in whose house the blaze originated. Oftentimes several minutes are wasted before neighbors realize what is happening. Everyone should learn that to report fires the most direct way is by telephone.

"Fire 1313"

"Simply ask for Fire 1313 and the operator will ask you if you wish to report a fire. When you answer 'yes' she will connect you direct with the fire alarm office. (The chief didn't mention it, but the number should be easy to remember. Isn't a 13 symbolic of bad luck")

"In reporting the location of the fire speak distinctly and slowly. There are a number of streets that are easily confused, such as Perry ave. and Prairie ave. and in cases like this it should be made certain that the correct street name is learned in the fire department before the connection is broken."

Southtown is not the scene of many large fires and most of the small fires are caused by carelessness, declared Chief Moynihan. There has been no marked decrease in the number of fires since the department has been completely motorized but when the horse drawn apparatus was used the property loss was twice the amount that it now is.

CAMBRIA FRAUDERS FORFEIT THEIR BONDS

Repeated failure of two confidence men to appear in the Grand Crossing court to answer charges lodged against them by their victims caused Judge Francis Allegretti to forfeit their bonds Thursday and issue warrants for their arrest.

The men, John Venescola, 32, 1124 W. Polk st., and Andrew Barbaris, 2519 Indiana ave, are alleged to have taken a sum totalling nearly $2,500 from Frank Cambria, owner of a shoe repairing shop at 847 W 59th st, and Narro Serro, 7000 Wood st. Both men were victimized through the age old "handkerchief game" after they had withdrawn their life savings from the bank in order to show they were honest and thrifty and could be trusted with the large sum of money that the confidence men claimed they wanted to give to charity.

Cambria identified both men as those who robbed him, and Serro named Venescola. At their first appearance in court more than a month ago both of the defendants asked for a continuance and stated that they would repay the money. Since the money had been the life savings of both of the complainants, both agreed to the postponement of the trial with the hope that they would regain their losses.

Three times the cases were set for trial and at none did either Venescola or Barbaris come to court. Action in forfeiting their bonds was deferred on the plea of their attorney twice, but on the third time Judge Allegretti issued warrants for their arrest

New Station's Call Letters Are "W-B-C-N"

"W-B-C-N, Chicago!" That's what Southtown radio fans—and fans in thousands of other communities, too—will be hearing day in and day out ere long.

Official word that the call letters "WBCN," representing the "World's Best Community Newspaper," had been granted to the Southtown Economist by Radio Commissioner D. B. Carson has come from Washington, and the name has been adopted permanently for the new Economist station, now under construction.

WBCN not only has significance but is a combination easily remembered, readily spoken and clearly understood. It is expected that before many months have passed, it will be one of the best known station names on the air.

If present plans are realized, the new call probably will be emerging from receiving sets early in November, delivery of the new 500-watt broadcasting equipment having been promised by the Western Electric company for then.

CHANGE POLICY OF CIRCULATION COMING WEEK

Current Issue of Economist Last to be Distributed Free

With this issue of the Southtown Economist, free circulation of the paper ends. Commencing next week the Economist will be delivered only where it is ordered and will be charged for at the rate of 10 cents per month.

Most of the papers readers know of the change and have placed their orders But carriers who are conducting the subscription campaign have found many of the prospective subscribers away from home when they called, consequently have not had opportunity to secure orders from these persons.

Tom Reidy still is in the lead in the prize contest boy carriers are engaged in to see which will "sign" the highest percentage of the persons on his route. He lives at 7338 Wabash ave. The next two in line are probably Clarence Satterblom, 2050 W. 69th pl, and John Leonard, 5834 Winchester ave., altho a number of the boys are running "neck and neck."

End Contest Next Week

The contest will close October 11, but a week will be required to get exact counts on the boy's returns.

Publishers of the Economist are highly gratified at the results of the canvass thus far The thousands of subscriptions that are pouring into the office are considered a testimonial to the position of the paper in the community

During the course of the subscription campaign thousands of readers have testified that the paper is valuable to them as a medium of news of the community, as a force for civic and community improvements, as a source of information and a valuable guide to the markets of the community

Add New Features

Several features have been added to the paper the past few weeks, including a woman's department—fashions, home economics and other matter. A valuable radio department is being developed so that the Economist may be of assistance to the amateurs and radio fans. Church news, organization news, and specialized activities, such as sports and musical news, are all being more extensively developed. These additions are making the paper almost indispensable to residents of the community who wish to keep informed on their "home town's" activities.

To those who desire to have the delivery of the paper continued is suggested use of the order blank printed on another page of this edition, or just phone your order to Englewood 1400 and delivery will not be interrupted

SIX ORGANIZATIONS COME OUT FOR NEW SOUTHTOWN SEWERS

TEN OTHER BODIES EXPECTED TO FALL IN LINE FOR IMPROVEMENT PROJECT

Six of the sixteen civic organizations approached having signified their willingness to co-operate in the movement to secure a new sewage system for Southtown to replace the present inadequate facilities. Confidence that sentiment will be unanimous was expressed, Tuesday by James Hughes, of the First Englewood State bank, of the Englewood Civic and Commercial association.

The organizations that have put their stamp of approval on the movement are Park Manor Improvement association, West Englewood Lions club Auburn Park Lions club, Central Business Men's association of Englewood, Englewood Business Mens' association and Englewood Lions' club.

All of the others are not expected to be heard from for at least several weeks yet, since some of them meet only once a month and will not have an opportunity to consider the matter until their next regular meeting

Informal talks were given at the conclusion of the business session of the Civic association last Wednesday, by George Dow, on good health as the basis for getting more business, and by Abe Mindes, who urged merchants to trade with local merchants as an example to the customers whom they berate for buying elsewhere Mr Dow suggested that an improved line of merchandise, fair prices and efficient service would enable any business man to keep his customers from patronizing loop stores. Hosts at the luncheon were Dr. M. H. Dugger and John D McClun.

MAN SHOT SUNDAY AT 60TH, HALSTED

Terrence Reeves, 5406 Indiana ave, was shot in the leg early Sunday morning by one of four men who sped past the corner of 60th and Halsted sts, where he was waiting for a car, in a large automobile. ## WIFE MURDERER TURNS GUN ON HIMSELF, DIES

58th and Normal Scene of Killing Saturday; Suicide in Loop

Using the same revolver with which he had killed his wife, Emma, at 58th st and Normal blvd. Saturday night, William Ehrig, 48 years old, shot himself in the head in the lobby of the Union Trust building in the loop Sunday morning. He died early Monday morning in the County hospital.

Ehrig was a brother to Mrs Ehrig's first husband, Harry, who died several years ago William had been away for many years and when he returned about four years ago Mrs. Ehrig married him. With Mrs Ehrig lived her oldest son, Harry jr, who, as a result of an automobile accident fifteen years ago, suffered neuritis which caused contraction of the muscles and left him badly crippled.

Six months ago the Ehrigs became estranged. Mrs Ehrig continued to live with her son at 5718 Normal blvd and Ehrig moved to 430 W. 63rd st. where he roomed with S. J. Hart. Ehrig wanted to effect a reconciliation but his wife had filed a suit for separate maintenance. Saturday night he met her as she was returning home. An argument insued and Ehrig drew a revolver from his pocket and fired a bullet into the woman's neck As she fell to the pavement he ran west on 58th st.

Leaves Farewell Note

Passersby rushed the injured woman to the Englewood hospital and summoned the police. Mrs Ehrig died when brought into the operating room of the hospital. A thorough search was made of the neighborhood but Ehrig was not apprehended. His hat was picked up in an alley nearby.

A note was found in his room on W. 63rd st. which read:

"Good-by to all."

On top of the note, which was unsigned, was $200.

The following morning Ehrig walked into the lobby of the loop office building and turned the revolver upon himself. Paul Rochetto, an employee of the Chicago Tribune, saw the man and attempted to stop him from ending his life. He grappled with him and the first shot went astray. The second bullet lodged in Ehrig's brain.

Makes Dying Confession

Police of the Central station hurried him to the County hospital where recovery was declared impossible. Together with Sergts. Barton and Fogarty of the Englewood station, Hart, his landlord, and Paul H. Stevenson, a fellow roomer, went to the hospital and identified him When told that he was dying Ehrig confessed. In his pocket were found clippings of the murder story from all the morning newspapers and a letter explaining the cause of his domestic difficulty.

Inquests for the two were held at Lanyon's chapel, 415 W. 63rd st., Monday afternoon Frank Ehrig, 24 years old, 6311 Honore st., the youngest son of the murdered woman, told of her life history A daughter, Mrs. Mabel Grass, 618 W 61st st, was not present

Harry, the crippled son, has, in spite of his handicap been making a good living He is director and manager of Hal Ehrig's "Blue Demons," one of the leading dance orchestras in the city, and has composed several dance selections. Until a few years ago he conducted a music store near 63rd and Halsted sts His illness keeps him almost constantly confined to his bed and restricts his muscular activity but it is believed that he will recover

SKATING RINK SOON FOR PARK MANOR

A public ice-skating rink on the Board of Education property located on 72nd st, between South Park and Calumet aves is to be constructed by the Park Manor Improvement association

The latter body has secured a permit from the Board of Education and will go ahead with surfacing so that the lot can be flooded Lights will be installed and flooding will commence as soon as freezing weather has arrived An appropriation to cover the expense was made at the last meeting of the association, Monday night

A much needed improvement, sidewalks on 73rd st, has been completed, it was reported Monday by the committee on streets

Discussion was also heard on the latest plan relative to the boulevarding of South Park ave, which it is proposed to widen between 63rd and 67th sts by adding a 34 foot strip on the east side.

The Board of Local Improvements has recommended this improvement and the city council soon will act upon it If approved, the street will be taken over by the South Park commissioners for boulevard purposes

The association has asked the city to station policemen at the 71st and 69th st intersections of South Park ave to safeguard pedestrians from speeders, who have become more prevalent on that street since heavy traffic was barred A number of accidents have occurred recently at these corners

The alley between State st and Wabash ave, running from 67th to 68th st—long a "sore spot"—has shown considerable improvement since a member of the association was appointed a special inspector of the Board of Health and deputized to clean up the stretch.

MESSAGES FROM AIR URGE SOUTHTOWNERS TO REGISTER

All over Southtown Saturday, around noon, everyone was twisting his neck, curious to learn the meaning of the bits of paper that filled the sky. This plane was responsible. Its message was a plea for registering. Pilot Walter W. Wolff is at the wheel. With him was Charles La Brache. The other two are W. G. Tegtmeier, head of the Business Men's Dancon for Senator club (right), and Carl Klaasi, of the Service Men's Dancon club. The two organizations were responsible for the dodger scattering.

SOCIAL AND ORGANIZATION ACTIVITIES

Englewood Woman's Club Reunion

Monday afternoon was the occasion of the opening meeting of the Englewood Woman's club in the club rooms at the Masonic temple, 6730 Wentworth ave. The president, Mrs. A. R. E. Wyant, extended a welcome to all members and guests and gave an account of the biennial convention of federated clubs held at Los Angeles in June. The Chicago Artist quartet, including Mrs. Margaret Lester, Miss Ethel Heide, LeRoy Hamp, and Clayton Quast, acompanied by William Lester, sang, and Aldis Bartlett gave interpretative readings.

In her address Mrs. Wyant compared the club year to a journey as an introduction to her story of the trip to California.

"Under the leadership of the new president, Mrs. John D. Sherman," she said, "the continuity of the national work will not be disturbed. There is a new department, however, which will receive particular stress, that is, the department of the American home. The question, 'What is the matter with the American home?' seemed to be uppermost in Mrs. Sherman's mind in her report as chairman of applied education. In her opinion the place to start in the healing of this broken world is in the home. . . . This interest coupled with that in education and conservation of our natural resources will undoubtedly lead the new president to emphasize these things most strongly."

Mrs. Wyant urged the club members to co-operate with the Illinois federation's efforts to get out the vote. "This means, first of all, register October 14 if you did not on October 4. Everyone must register this fall if he or she is to vote in November."

Next week morning sessions will be started. Mrs. Walter S. Dodd, co-author of "Government in Illinois," having charge of the sociology department's discussion of "The Citizen's Relations to Government." Music will also be a part of this program which opens at 10:45 o'clock. In the afternoon at 2 o'clock, Miss Ruth Egge will speak on "Silverware, Its History, Its Use, Its Care." No commissions on lot sales paid to any person.

Real perpetual care—an honest contract—care funds in trust company's hands.

A properly developed cemetery—not a paper cemetery. Seven and one-half miles of sewers and drains prevent any possibility of wet graves or overflowed lots; 4¼ miles of water pipe connecting with the Chicago water system. Every lot in the cemetery properly watered during the dry season.

Lot prices moderate. Should be investigated by everyone wishing to secure a cemetery lot. Such investigation may save the mistake of paying as much or more for an unfinished lot in an undeveloped cemetery as would secure a lot in beautiful Mount Greenwood.

OUR CHALLENGE —AND YOURS!

"WBCN—World's Best Community Newspaper." The radiocast call letters we asked for, and have received. And the reason we asked for them. Cocky egotism? Over self esteem? No, for two reasons.

In the first place, we may think the Economist worthy of being so designated. The city community newspaper field is new, and we have reason to believe that we are well up in the front ranks. But that is neither here nor there. We do not ask the Southtown public to consider our peerless position as an accomplished fact, necessarily. All we want is that they should give us credit for having what our call letters stand for as our ideal. our working hypothesis, if you please. In the final analysis, it amounts to the same thing. Even tho we be leading the procession, he who would be a "world's best" must keep hustling. Southtown probably doesn't care whether there be, in New York, or Greenland, or Timbuctoo, a newspaper better than the Economist. But she does want her newspaper to be the best possible here and now—and she wants it to be constantly becoming better.

The second reason is that no newspaper—at least not a community newspaper—can be praiseworthy and take to itself all the praise for its attainments. A newspaper should be for its public; it is necessarily of its public far more peculiarly than are other businesses and professions in this much inter-related world of men and things.

The Economist owes much of its progress to the remarkable rapidity with which Southtown has developed. We have tried to keep pace, and to exercise as much constructive leadership as our capabilties permitted.

There is no room for a "world's best" newspaper in a dead community. The Economist's advance will correlate that of the Southtown district. Our ambition is inevitably an ambition for Southtown. Give us the "world's best community"—and we'll add the "newspaper."

FIRE PREVENTION

Next Thursday, at Grant park, will be re-enacted the historic incident of Mrs. O'Leary's cow and the upset lantern which brought woe and devastation to Chicago back in 1871, that fearful conflagration which laid the city waste and which older people here still talk about and those at the farthermost corners of the nation still remember. In this age of fireproof structures, and with a fire fighting force of 2,300 men in Chicago that could be concentrated about endangered sections, such wholesale destruction of life and property by flames is not likely to be repeated. But there can be, and is, large property loss, and a number of lives sacrificed each year to fire. And a high percentage of the fires occuring are preventable. It is with the purpose of minimizing this waste, through education of the people in preventive and crisis measures. that this week, with its unique historical significance in Chicago, has been named Fire Prevention Week.

Chief Moynihan of the 12th battalion. who has fought Southtown fires for years, emphasizes the need for careful inspection of chimneys before furnace fires are started. But don't jump to the conclusion that, because you had one fire without mishap, your flue is in good condition, If so. chimney defection fires would not keep occurring throughout the winter. Better be safe than sorry. Have that flue inspected today. And that rubbish in the basement. Be sure it is all destroyed, and make certain your kindling is so stored that it is as far as possible from the place where hot ashes are deposited.

Those are the chief preventive measures, besides care in the disposition of burnt match ends and cigarette and cigar stubs, and being careful not to go away and leave an electric iron attached or an electric bulb against inflammable material. In case all prevention fails and a fire starts, Chief Moynihan gives some good advice in another column of this issue. But your telephone might not work. Do you know where the nearest fire alarm box is situated? If not, you'd better go right out and look for it.

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS

Music is the one universal language, they say, yet how lamentably large is the number of us who, understanding the tongue more or less readily, cannot speak it. A few men and women there are who could never learn the language. But for the most part, lack of some moderate ability in the art of musical self expression results from lack of opportunities for its development. To those interested in choral singing, orchestra and the organ, work being offered this year for the first time in the night schools of Lindblom and Englewood high schools offers unique possibilities. Music instruction is a departure that should prove very popular. The orchestra at Lindblom meets on Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock and the chorus on Wednesday evening at the same hour. William M. Mason directs both classes. At Englewood the orchestra rehearses on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, and the chorus on the same nights at a later hour. Charles Espenshade directs the work and the organ class as well. Surely south side folk will take advantage of the privileges that are theirs.

Another worth while project, bound to promote musical appreciation in the community served by the school, is the series of free evening and Sunday afternoon concerts being innovated this year as a result of the enterprise of Mr. Mason and Harry Keeler, principal of Lindblom. If receiving, as they doubtless will, the popular support they merit, the concerts should set an example for other schools to give to their patrons the benefit of the talent they have in their midst.

What Readers Are Thinking

(Letters to be inserted in this column must bear name and address of the writer. The signature may be omitted, however, when the letter is printed if writer so requests.)

"L" RIGHT-OF-WAY SHOULD BE CLEANED UP

As an active agency interested in the welfare of Englewood, I am writing you to inquire if something can be done to induce the South Side Elevated railroad to clean up its right of way under the structure.

If you should send a representative to investigate, you will find that the alley under the structure between Harvard and Stewart avenues is filled with refuse of all kinds and is a disgrace to the community.

DR. M. H. DUGGER,
357 W. 63rd st.

ON ALLEY PAVING

It amuses me to hear some of the conversations that take place in our newly paved gasoline alley. The subject, of course, is the poor concrete that has been laid and whether or not those that haven't signed will have to pay their share. As a usual thing the objector is some pen pusher who hasn't left his desk for the last twenty years and doesn't know anything about concrete, law, or city ordinances, and is always against any public improvement because he has to pay his share.

In the first place, with all the gentle grafters our city employes, it would be folly to petition the city to have the alley paved. It would be much better to let the private contractor have the job without argument, because the concrete work done by the city is usually of a poor grade and more expensive.

True enough, the city would give a longer period to pay for the paving, but the property owners always pay interest at the rate of 6 percent for the extension of time.

The city ordinance provides for any public improvement such as street paving, sewer extension, and alley pavements when 51 percent of the frontage is in favor of it.

Now, unless the contractor who paved the alley had 51 percent of the frontage, he would not have attempted to pave the alley. So when the representative of the paving contractor visits you and asks you how you wish to pay for the new alley, it would be a good idea for those people who need an extension of time to make their payments, to treat him with courtesy.

And those people who would rather slam the door in his face and tell him, "We didn't sign for it, why should we pay for it?" will probably meet their neighbors in the county court some morning and besides having judgment passed against their property, will also pay the court costs in addition.

A. H.

CHILDREN'S STORY HOUR TO BE HELD

Miss Maxine Adams of the Ogden park branch of the city library will conduct the children's story hour class, which will meet for the first time Friday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. Miss Adams also has charge of the children's section of the libray, and will advise the youngsters in their selection of reading material. In both departments she will be assisted by Miss Agnes McGrath who had charge of the children's work in the library last year.

ARMSTRONG, EVENING SCHOOL FOUNDER, TELLS EARLY TRIALS

ENGLEWOOD NIGHT CLASSES GROW FROM LESS THAN HUNDRED TO 6,000 IN 25 YEARS

From less than a hundred students in four rooms of the original Englewood high school, now torn down, the evening school work at Englewood has grown so remarkably in the last twenty-five years that now the enrollment for classes is over 6,000.

Evening school classes in the city were started by James E. Armstrong, present principal of Englewood, and in speaking before the Englewood Kiwanis club, he told of difficulties he met when he attempted to innovate night study when the schools were under the jurisdiction of the school board of the town of Lake.

"I was given permission to hold evening classes and charge the students $2 a month for tuition," Mr. Armstrong related. The teacher's pay was set at $2 an evening but the engineer of the building was allowed to set his own salary. He refused to work for less than $1 a night and thus our first night school started, with the engineer receiving twice the salary of the teachers."

Willis E. Tower, principal of the Calumet high school and present principal of the Englewood Standard Evening school, told of the scope of the work now offered to those who wish to continue their studies after working hours.

"There are but two standard evening schools in the city," Mr. Tower stated. "These schools give the same work as do the day schools and most of the students are those who were unable to attend or finish high school. All regular high school subjects are offered as well as a number of special studies. We have classes in pipe organ, choral singing, automobile, shop, cooking, radio and gymnasium work. The value of the classes is being appreciated by many persons who one would not ordinarily think would attend evening schools.

"The superintendent of the dining servcie on the monon route has attended Englewood for several years and has taken French and a number of commercial subjects. The assistant manager of Carson, Pirie, Scott's wholesale departments is also a regular student at the school and his studies embrace most commercial subjects. Young brides and those who soon expect to be brides are found in large numbers in the cooking and sewing classes and for almost everyone there is a subject offered that will especially interest him."

Mr. Tower also told of the Americanization classes conducted in the Lewis-Champlin school. The enrollment there is now 900 and it is expected that it will soon be increased to over 1,300. When these classes were started four years ago, Mr. Tower stated, the enrollment was less than seventy-five.

TEACHER AND EARLY RESIDENT HERE DIES

Mrs. Helen L. Vreeland, teacher and head assistant at the Lewis-Champlain school for fifteen years, died suddenly Tuesday morning, September 30, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Freeman E. Brown, 7019 Yale ave., following a paralytic stroke. Mrs. Vreeland would have been 69 years of age the next day.

Mrs. Vreeland had been a teacher in public schools for thirty years, giving up her work at the Englewood school fifteen years ago. She had made her home in Englewood for forty-four years. She was an active member of the People's Liberal church of Englewood. Surviving her are her husband, John E. Vreeland, and daughter, and a sister, Sarah Briggs of Morgan Park.

Dr. R. A. White of the People's Liberal church conducted the funeral services at 2:30 o'clock last Thursday afternoon at the residence. Interment was at Oakwoods cemetery.

Harry Seabrooke, 500 Fullerton pkwy., had his automobile stolen by four bandits who jumped on the car as he drove past 55th and Loomis sts. Sunday night and commanded him to drive to 56th st. and Racine ave. Here they put him out of the machine and drove off.

GRADE PUPILS AGAIN EXCLUDED FROM HARPER

Claim Primary Classes Need Portables Used by Older Students

Instructions issued Monday from the office of William McAndrew, superintendent of schools, informed Ernest Cole, Earle school principal, that classes for intermediate pupils will be discontinued at portables on the Harper junior high school grounds, 65th and Wood sts., of which he is in charge.

Students of those grades were ordered Tuesday morning to attend the schools to which they were transferred when Harper was converted from a grade to a junior high school in September.

According to Mr. Cole in a statement to the Economist, the superintendent's office considers that primary pupils at Harper junior high school are crowded because of the presence of the intermediate grades in the portables which are needed by younger children now attending school in two shifts daily. Accommodations exist at the Earle, Raster and Harper branch schools for the older students, he said.

Parents Start Canvass

Parents who objected to the transfer of their pupils to other buildings started a canvass of the Harper district Tuesday to influence mothers to keep children from primary or junior high school classes at Harper school as a protest against the superintendent's latest move. Among those who visited homes were Mrs. George Monroe, Mrs. Thomas O'Rourke and Mrs. J. W. Seaborg. Twenty-two women were included in the canvassing squads.

A special meeting of the Civic League of West Englewood was called for 8 o'clock Friday night at the Ogden park field house at which the changes in policy on the part of the school board will probably be the chief topic for discussion.

Less than three weeks ago, President Moderwell of the board of education stated in a communication to the West Englewood Lions' club that Harper pupils would not be sent out of their home district to other schools. Eight extra portables were being built on the playgrounds by a large corps of carpenters that the intermediate students might be received at Harper as soon as possible.

Mr. Cole of the Earle school explained Tuesday that his instructions relative to Harper school emanate from the office of the superintendent of schools, and that the letter received by the Lions club was not written by Mr. McAndrew.

Promises Children May Stay

Efforts were made by William Peak, president of the West Englewood Lions club to reach either Mr. McAndrew or Mr. Moderwell Monday night. He was informed they were out of town. He has in his possession the letter in which Mr. Moderwell promised use of Harper portables for intermediate pupils.

Meanwhile Alderman Terence F. Moran is trying to arrange an audience with Mayor Dever for either today, Wednesday, or tomorrow at which he hopes to bring to the attention of the mayor the situation confronting parents of Harper district.

Protest against the change in policy was voiced Tuesday by Thomas O'Rourke, a Harper parent.

"The primary children in the Harper portables were instructed to tell pupils of the intermediate grades to return to school at Harper in the new portables, five of which are ready for use," he said. "Many of those children failed to get the word in time, but 100 grade students were received into classes Monday. Home work was assigned, but this morning they were excluded from using Harper school, after staying home a month for the privilege of remaining in their own school district."

CAPITOL THEATER TO OPEN JANUARY 1

Work on the interior of the new Capitol theater building at 7931-39 Halsted st., is being carried on daily, a representative of the National Theaters corporation stated Saturday. With plastering under way, January 1 is considered as the probable opening date.

WORLD WAR VETERANS TAKE OVER WORK OF CIVIL WAR SURVIVORS

SQUARE POST, AMERICAN LEGION, RELIEVES CHICAGO VETERANS' ASSOCIATION

From the old to the new was the order at Tuesday night's meeting of Square post, No. 232, American Legion, which formally took over the duties and responsibilities of the Chicago Veteran association, a Civil war veterans' organization, whose ranks have been depleted by death. This transfer is believed to be one of the first of its kind anywhere and probably the first in Chicago.

All rights and interest in the Veterans' association's possessions in Oakwoods and Mt. Olive cemeteries were turned over to the World war veterans' body, which pledged itself to continue the practice of paying honor on Memorial day to those veterans who have departed this world, and to care for the honored dead's last resting place.

An effort to make transfers of this nature a general thing throughout the country failed at this year's national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic at Boston. However, the trend is toward such action by individual posts finding themselves so weak in surviving membership that they are unable to function satisfactorily. In the case of the Veterans' association and Square post, a three-year period of co-operation in patriotic duties has led naturally to amalgamation.

In the form of a resolution, the Veterans' association paid high tribute to their younger brethren for their "kindness, patriotism and respect for those who have preceded them in loyalty to their country and devotion to the flag."

A program, consisting principally of presentation of the officers of the Veterans' association and other distinguished guests, and responses from them, made Tuesday's meeting, held at the Midway Masonic temple, an interesting session.

Songs by Louise Messenie, a pianologue by Miss Holmes, a talk by Miss Anne Vinton, whistling and songs by Miss Dorothy Lewis, "Songs of the A. E. F.," by Bobby Brown, radio entertainer from KWY; music by the Square post orchestra and a "soldiers' delight" lunch, of coffee and doughnuts, formed the greater part of the program.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the meeting was C. R. White, William D. Roberts and O. H. Bovick.

FORMER COLLEGE CAFE REOPENED SATURDAY

D. J. Richter has assumed management of the former College cafe, 735 Englewood ave., a dining room well known to residents of this district, which has not been in operation for some months.

He reopened it Saturday. The cafe has been redecorated and will be conducted under its new name, the College Cafe and Tea Room. Mr. Richter has had extensive experience in the management of such establishments and in meeting the requirements of cafe patrons.

DEEDS AND TRAVELING BAG GONE; MYSTERY

Mysterious disappearance of a traveling bag containing deeds to a residence property in Toronto, Canada, has non plussed Mrs. Mary Costello, who, with her son, Thomas, lives at 515 W. 63rd st., in an apartment over the Piggly-Wiggly store there.

Some days previous, Mrs. Costello had put the deeds in the bag, a dark brown leather man's bag, preparatory to making a trip to Toronto to dispose of the property in order that she might invest in Englewood.

Wednesday of last week her son asked for a Canadian check book in order to write a check that she wished to take with her. She remembered putting it in the bag with the deeds, but when the son went to the bedroom to get the book the bag was nowhere to be found. When it disappeared, they do not know, and other evidence than that the place had been entered was entirely lacking.

MILITARY ACADEMY OF MORGAN PARK TO ASSIST WITH DEDICATION

STARTING OF 1871 FIRE BY COW WILL BE RE-ENACTED ON OCTOBER 9

Students of Morgan Park Military academy are to have a part in the dedication of Chicago's new stadium on the lake front October 9, for the ceremonies also are to commemorate the anniversary of the burning of the city in 1871.

The Academy boys were invited by Edward J. Kelly, president of the Board of South Park commissioners, whose son is a student there.

The boys will assist in the raising of the flag over the stadium. Following this, they will be a part of the parade with American Legion members and regulars from Fort Sheridan and will then escort Mayor Dever and President Kelly to the reviewing stand. The students will then put on a formal parade.

"Mrs. O'Leary's cow," which caused the Chicago conflagration, is to be reincarnated and will kick over another lamp in a shed. Firemen will fight the blaze with old-fashioned apparatus such as was used at the time of the great Chicago fire.

A three-story building also has been erected in the stadium and this will be set on fire and firemen with modern apparatus will demonstrate methods of life-saving and fire-fighting.

A parade of fire apparatus is to be followed by a polo game between two picked teams.

STREET CAR STRIKES MAN AT 63RD, UNION

Serious injuries were sustained by George Mander, 9240 Burley ave., when he was struck by a street car at 63rd st. and Union ave. Tuesday afternoon about 3 o'clock. The man was removed to the Englewood hospital by a Premier cab driver who was nearby. After regaining consciousness at the hospital he was questioned about the accident, but was able to give little information concerning it.

DEAD STATIONS TOTAL 572; ACTIVE ONES 537

Radio stations come and go, but most of them go, if statistics compiled by the radio section of the United States department of commerce are any criterion.

Since broadcasting stations were first licensed, back in September, 1921, 572 stations have suspended operations. This total is greater than the number of stations now in operation, which aggregate 537. Only three of the 572 stations that quit were in Class B.

At the Theatres

LARGE AUDIENCES AT THE ENGLEWOOD

Attendance at the Englewood theater, 63rd and Halsted, is increasing daily. Both the matinee and night performances are attracting large audiences. The bill on the first half of this week includes the Golden Gate Revue, Crafts and Sheehan, and other features, provides good wholesome amusement.

Blakes' Mules, who certainly kick when someone tries to ride them, are to provide a laugh a second starting with a matinee, Thursday. Loretta Gray and her company will entertain with songs and dances. Others to be seen are Pierce and Arrow, a novelty act; Stuart Sisters, clever harmony singers; Monroe brothers, and one more feature. Saturday afternoon, a fun program will be provided for the children, including funny capers by Blakes' Mules, a special two reel comedy, five other big time acts and the comical Aesops Fable.

"STEP ALONG" IS A GIRLESQUE REVUE

"Step Along" is a carnival of splendor, brimful of humor, and approved by the most skeptical theater goers. Voted as fit for clean-minded men, women and children, it has been classed with the best Broadway musical comedy revues—modeled on the same principles as White's Scandals, or a Ziegfeld Follies production.

The same energy is used by the producers of this show as in the above mentioned, in selecting the girls of the chorus, which is an outstanding feature. Each girl is capable of stepping out and doing a specialty that is worthy of mention. Among the fast stepping principals is the funny Max Coleman, formerly known as Max of "Julius and Max"; Mlle. Germaine, the little lady that has the distinction of being voted as the modern Venus, who has posed for some of our best American artists. She is the sparkling gem of this perfect entertainment.

Then comes the George Beban of burlesque, that inimitable Italian comedian, Bennie Moore. Miss Claire Stone, who has been retained from last season, needs very little introduction, as she left an impression in every theater that will long be remembered. Also pretty and stately Virginia Greene, right out of vaudeville, where she headlined in her singing and dancing specialty, and in this show she does her share and more.

Peter Wells, the singing and dancing juvenile, will find favor everywhere for his ability and personality, if he continues with the speed and rhythm he practices in "Step Along." He sings like an Al Jolson and dances like a demon. Chester Griffin is the able and perfect English speaking straight man who speeds the entire company on to one of the fastest and cleanest burlesque shows ever assembled and produced for many years.

CONFIDENCE!

In all our efforts to secure business, we recognize as vitally important the building up of a Good-Will reserve to its absolute maximum. We permit no plea of expediency, no lure of "quick returns" to sway us from adherence to this guiding principle.

IN THE WORLD of RADIO

NEW STATION ADDS NEWSPAPERMAN AND SPORTS AUTHORITY

HARRY A. ZOOK, JR., RECENTLY WITH KWY, BECOMES ASSISTANT DIRECTOR

For the post of assistant director of the new Foster & McDonnell-Southtown Economist radiocast station, now under construction, Harry A. Zook, jr., until recently a World Crier at KWY, has been selected, it has been announced officially by Director Robert "Bob" Northrop

The presence of Mr. Zook on the staff means that listeners to the new station will have the services of an authority on sports whenever the occasion for such arises He is well known in middlewestern sporting circles for his work as sports editor of The Daily Times in the Tri-Cities (Davenport, Ia., and Rock Island and Moline, Ill.), where for two and one-half years his articles on boxing, baseball, football, bowling, wrestling, basketball, golf, tennis, shooting, track and other forms of athletics were recognized as authoritative.

This training was made applicable to radio for the first time when he was called upon to be one of the first two men that ever broadcast a golf tournament. Anyone who tuned in on the "linkside" story of the last Western Amateur championship at the Hinsdale course heard his voice.

As with so many otther men in the broadcasting field, Mr. Zook, although only 25, has had extensive experience in journalism, having served as reporter, copyreader, advertising copywriter and layout man, telegraph editor, humorous "column conductor," editor of house organs and theatrical reviewer, as well as sports editor. He is also an artist, specializing in cartooning and advertising art. All of this experience should stand him in good stead in his new capacity, for he is also to act as radio editor and artist for the Economist.

Although born and schooled in Elkhart, Ind., the native heath of several KWY and other radio men, Mr. Zook has been a Chicagoan the greater part of the last six years, his first considerable acquaintance with the city coming while he was in training at the Great Lakes naval training station during the world war.

HUSHAPHONE HERE, BUT MANY FANS OPPOSE IT

Introduction of the hushaphone, a new form of microphone which permits the announcer's voice to be transmitted clearly without allowing any oth sounds to go out on the air, has brought about a difference of opinion among radio fans as to whether the old method of broadcasting sports events is inferior or superior to the newest way

W the hushaphone in front of him the sports announcer, sitting at the ringside or in the grandstand, can talk to his invisible audience without having to outshout the surrounding multitude.

Those opposing use of the hushaphone argue that absence of the shouts and other noises usually accompanying a sporting event detracts som the interest, rather than helping matters. They feel that they can gain a more v id mind-picture of the contestants' activities when they hear the spectators cheer or jeer.

The hushaphone is a tubular container for the "mike" proper. At the front of the tube is a small opening, into which the announcer talks directly.

NEW ARMSTRONG SET N. Y. SHOW FEATURE

Among the many features to be seen at the third annual radio exhibition at the Grand Central Palace in New York City, November 3 to 8, inclusive, will be a "mystery set" invented by E. H. Armstrong, who will operate the device in a specially built glass case for the edification of spectators. The model is a special superheterodyne. Motion pictures demonstrating transmission and reception problems are to be shown during the show.

SECOND IN COMMAND

Economist Photo

Coming to the new Southtown Economist radiocast station with much experience as a writer, sports authority and announcer, Mr. Zook is counted upon to be of marked assistance to Director "Bob" Northrop in his efforts to make the Economist programs exceptionally entertaining.

WEBH PROGRAM WINS APPRECIATION FROM LISTENERS' SESSION

THIS WEEK'S MEETING ALSO CROWDED WITH INTEREST FOR RADIO FANS

"WEBH Night" proved an engrossing feature to the overflow crowd of radio fans that attended last week's meetings of the Broadcast Listeners' association at the Hamilton park fieldhouse.

The headliners on the bill included Miss Elsie Schey, contralto; Miss Marian O'Neill Holland, violinist; Miss Marie Kelly, comedian and dramatic reader; Landon Bros., "Hawaiian" musicians, Fred Agard, tenor; "Banjo James" and Paul Locker, vocalist. Miss Kelly is a Southtown young woman.

The technical side of the program was taken care of by Douglas F. Conrod, with a demonstration of the echophone and puritone, and M. H. Romberg of the University of Chicago, with instructions in construction of the low loss selective receiver.

A radio artists' review is in store for those present at the association's session of this week, scheduled as usual for Wednesday night at Hamilton park. Several surprises are promised.

A short talk by Robert ("Bob") Northrop, director of WBCN, the new Southtown Economist station ("the south side's own station") will vie with another instructional talk by Mr Romberg on the low gross selective receiver. Other technical lectures probably will be heard, also.

Eight o'clock is the starting time. The public is invited.

TRAVEL TALKS MADE FEATURES AT WMAQ

A new idea in radio programs is being introduced on Saturday by WMAQ, the Chicago Daily News station, which has announced that it will put on the air a series of travelogues by noted travelers and lecturers. The talks are "illustrated in advance" by photographs appearing in the Saturday Daily News.

The first talk was delivered by E. M Newman. Others are to be given by Clara E. Laughlin, who will lecture on Italy, Professor Isaac J. Cox, whose subject will be the argentine republic and Chile; Charles A. Kent, on the Buried Races of Mexico; Paul M. Hinkhouse, Siam and Egypt; James Abbott, South Sea Islands; Ellis Prentice Cole, Canadian Rockies; Herman Weig, Alaska, and Paul F Hoierman, Hawaii.

AN INVITATION

Everybody who owns a radio set has at some time felt the need of technical advice. Perhaps something has gone wrong with your equipment and you are unable to locate the trouble or to adjust it if you have located it. Or mayhap you wish to know how you can get better results.

Regardless of what your problem or desire is in the way of information, the Economist will, through its new technical adviser, Walter J. McDonnell, endeavor to accommodate. All you have to do is write out your need and mail it to the Radio Editor, Southtown Economist, 728-732 W. 65th st. He will either reply through these columns (if the question and answer are of general interest) or by mail. To provide for the latter, a self-addressed stamped envelope should be enclosed with your request.

Contributions from radio fans are always welcomed by the Economist whether they be news stories, technical articles, diagrams containing something new and instructive, photographs, suggestions or criticisms. Address the Radio Editor.

QUESTION and ANSWER Department

Question—I have a set using two variometers and a variable condenser. I find it difficult to tune as it howls when I go near it. What can I do to remedy this—J. K. D.

Answer—Instructions for shielding have been mailed. A diagram of your hook-up would help us to advise what changes you could make to eliminate body capacity in your set.

Ques - -I have just finished wiring a three-tube regenerative set and all I have been able to get is a humming sound on the last jack, though th detector jack works O. K. I am not using a jack for the first stage.—L. M.

Answer—You probably forgot to connect up the "F" binding posts on your audio transformers to negative "A" battery.

Question 3—Have changed the condensers in my Reinartz set. I took out a 23-plate vernier and eleven-plate vernier because they were shorted, and I replaced them with two 23-plate plain condensers, using univernier knobs to tune with. Now I find the set is very sensitive and howls a good deal. Why is this?—H. O.

Answer—The two metal dials of the univernier act as plates of the condensers and should be grounded. To do this, drill a hole on the edge of each dial through the panel, put small bolts through, connect them together and connect to ground binding post on set. It will be necessary to enlarge the hole that fits over the condenser shaft so that dial does not touch shaft and ground your condensers

KIDDIES TO SHARE IN ENTERTAINMENT FROM ECONOMIST'S STATION

PART OF EACH DAY'S PROGRAM TO BE DEVOTED TO CHILDREN'S INTERESTS

The kiddies are not to be forgotten when the new Southtown Economist radiocast station is in full swing. Assurance of this was forthcoming from Director "Bob" Northrop, who is busily engaged in planning to please all classes of listeners.

As with most of the leading stations, the Economist station will devote, probably daily, a fixed portion of its schedule to features of interest particularly to the younger generation

There will be stories—fairy tales and the like—songs, readings, contests, etc, and in all likelihood several educational features. The latter, of course, will be presented in a form that will appeal to children—in fact, be relished in lieu of entertainment.

Any suggestions, along the lines mentioned or along other lines, will be welcomed, it is emphasized by Director Northrop, who can be reached by mail or telephone at the Economist offices. The address is 730 W. 65th st., and the telephone Englewood 1400

All of Ohio State University's eight football games this fall will be broadcast it is announced. The six at-home battles will be sent out over WEAM while WBAV will take care of the two out-of-town games.

All noise tending to drown the voice of the announcer at a moment when the listener desires above all to hear him will be kept out by use of the newly invented hushaphone, but arrangements have been made whereby the announcer can "cut in" on the cheering, band music, etc, whenever he feels it worth while.

STATIC

By Andy Pheldown

We opened the evening with YRU The result was that we ran head on into some half-baked dinner music. It was the Hammond Alg orchestra rendering "Yeh, We Are Devoid of Bananas." We did not call for a second helping.

A bedtime tale from OIC was the thing we encountered—outside of a few healthy howls, which we attributed to a neighbor trying to get China on a one-tube set. "The Sandman" was doing the bedtiming and we felt like applauding her for her grit. Needless to say, the title of her bedtime story was not "Twin Beds" or "Up in Mabel's Room."

After the effects of the preceding number wore off and we regained consciousness, we tuned in on that old favorite FOB. Keeping a watch on FOB never is a difficult task and this evening was no exception. Still and all, we never could understand why FOB isn't located in Detroit.

A short visit with ABC proved profitable, inasmuch as the feature at the time was how to make alphabet soup.

Ah, here is good old RAH, the station that is ever cheerful. Of course, you are aware that RAH is "located on the roof of the School of Applied Chiropody, where the tall corn never grows." (We thought of putting that last in a footnote).

Feeling musically inclined, we fiddled around diligently until in came BVD as breezy as could be. "The Breath of Spring" sung by Harry Legg was the first number we heard, and for an encore Harry offered "Shivering Blues." After that, we weren't sorry we put on the heavy red ones last Friday.

LUX, as usual, was simply bubbling over. This station never fails to have a clean program, and last night's was cleaner than the average. LUX can be counted upon never to rub the wrong way.

It was quite a show they put on at COD. The title of the piece was "The Poor Fish." "Poor" is right. When we heard the announcer, in introducing the play, make the remark that if any of his listeners 'had a bone to pick after hearing the show—etc.", we gasped for air, gritted our teeth and galloped on.

Despite all this, we would have got through the night all right if a careless twist of the dial hadn't brought in an unknown voice singing "Dream Daddy." The fact that the ownership of the voice remained a mystery was all that prevented a murder at some date in the near future, as we surely would have traveled a long way to avenge an insult like that.

More next week if we haven't got earache.

HETERODYNE THEORY RECEPTION DESCRIBED BY RADIO TECHNICIAN

MEANING OF "HETERODYNE" UNEQUAL POWER IS KEY TO SUBJECT

By Walter J. McDonnell

The word "heterodyne, compounded of the prefix, "hetero, meaning unequal, and "dyne," meaning power, quickly explains the theory of this method of reception.

For example, suppose that a radio frequency wave of constant amplitude acts upon the receiving antenna, and produces in the tuned circuits currents of the same nature. The presence of these currents will not be detected by an audio or crystal detector operated in the usual manner, for the wave produces in the plate circuit a rise in the plate current for its duration.

The radio frequency vibrations, being above the range of audibility, are not heard in the telephone receivers. The presence of this signal is made audible by the heterodyne method of adding another radio frequency wave of constant amplitude but of slightly different frequency.

The combination of the two waves results in a wave of frequency equal to the mean of the two frequencies, but with an amplitude which varies at a frequency equal to one-half of the difference of the frequencies This is called "beat" reception

In the practical application of this principle, the extra radio frequency current is generated at the receiving station and its frequency is adjusted there until the beat note has the desired frequency within the audible range. In this way, the incoming signal is moderated and is detected as any radio telephone signal would be.

If the local oscillation is produced by a separate oscillator (see figure R-3) it is referred to as the separate-heterodyne method of reception, but if it occurs in the receiver circuit itself it is called the self-heterodyne or autodyne method. (Figure R-4.) For brevity, the former method is often called simply the heterodyne method, the latter the autodyne method.

One of the valuable features of the heterodyne method of reception is the large amplification that can be obtained by simply increasing the strength of the local oscillation.

More will be explained about this in subsequent issues, as will also the method of using the feebler 1st, 2nd, 3rd, etc, harmonics to produce the beat note.

TECHNICAL TALKS TO BE HIGH LIGHTS

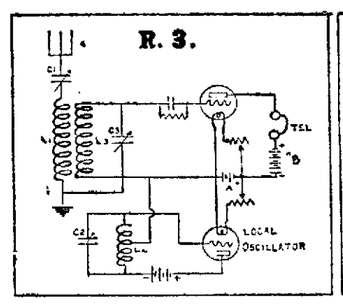
The portable super-heterodyne, its theory and practicability, is to be the subject of a talk by McMurdo Silver of the Silver-Marshall company, and associate I. R. E., before this week's meeting of the Chicago Radio association, at Ogden Park Field house Thursday evening.

Other talks, on the subjects of vacuum tubes and Thurman vario-transcoupler, by H. Chircistein of the Radio Tube Exchange and formerly of the General Electric company, and others, will be other features, as will Jimmy Eggert, Charles Dale and Alfred Tweed, radio artists. The latter will have his new banjo-mandolin orchestra in action.

Last week's gathering was a lively one, what with the many ovations given the artists by the packed house.

An offer to co-operate with the new Economist radio station, now building, has been extended by the association, which proffers the services of its entertainment staff chiefs, Mr. Tweed and Mr. Dell.



Drawing R-3 shows connections of a simple receiver using a separate oscillator to produce heterodyne "beats."

SOUTHTOWN MUSIC AND MUSICIANS

CHICAGO AS MUSICAL CENTER; "THERE IS MUSIC IN THE AIR"

By W. M. Mason

THE soft southern breezes are winging the birds from the north, but the first nip of autumn chill has started the warblers of Europe to our shores. It's a busy time in this old town for those who sing or make melody with instruments.

Mr. Stock has returned again with bundles of new scores under his arm, contracts for new soloists and a most elaborate program for the Chicago Symphony orchestra. He has a lot of new surprises for the children's concerts this year, and you mothers with musical children shouldn't allow the winter to pass without taking the youngsters to one or more of the concerts.

And the Civic orchestra. My, what an opportunity for our young amateur musicians to come under the care of such masters as Mr. Stock and his assistant, Mr. Delmarter. They are scheduled to play in our south side high school at popular prices. They should be received and encouraged with packed houses.

When one looks over the array of stars booked to shine in our local sky we may expect one dazzling illumination of melody and harmony from now till springtime. And what a variety! Certainly we can't complain of lack of choice. Singers high and low from coloratural heights to the lower alto depth; tenors both lyric and dramatic; baritones and basses, old and new, domestic and foreign, male and female are listed. Then come the wizards of the strings (those who make melody on cello, harp and violin)—take your choice. They come from Italy, Russia, Poland and one or two from "home, sweet home." The kings and queens (no jacks) of the piano; the players on organs, the great choruses from Canada, and Wales and Rome, the various symphonies that are the pride of our great American cities are all on their way. Surely Chicago is a musical Mecca.

One hardly dares mention our grand opera program for the season. The announcements sound much like fairy tales. The best and newest works in Italian, French, German and Russian, with several performances of English operas are to be given. We will hear the wild cry of the Valkyrie and the love strain as sung in the time of Pharoah, the bravado of the toreador of Seville and the lament of the clown (can you name the operas where these are found?)

And the schools have opened house again with hordes of students. Would you know where to send your boy or girl to study music? Do you know that Chicago has five great musical colleges, that Northwestern has a musical department second to none in this country?

We may "have no bananas" but we have music of every kind.

Children Nine to Twelve Form Six Piece Orchestra

Six children, ranging from 9 to 12 years of age, made up an orchestra which made its initial appearance at the Rally day services at Thoburn M. E. church, 64th and Paulina, Sunday morning.

Working on the theory that early training is essential for success in music A. C. Amidon, director of the orchestra at Thoburn, has organized the junior group. The children making up the sextet played a violin, two clarinets, a "C" soprano saxophone, a "C" melody saxophone, and a piano.

A permanent organization of a junior orchestra will probably be made and the number of instruments increased. The director's plans, though incomplete, call for regular rehearsals when simple orchestra numbers will be added to the repertoire of the young people. He gives personal instruction on all wind instruments.

Mr. Amidon regularly directs the Thoburn senior orchestra, an organization made up of 150 members, said to be the largest church musical body of its kind in the world. Every Sunday evening twenty-five or thirty pieces furnish music, and on special occasions fifty-five play.

TEN MUSICAL QUESTIONS

1—How can I interest my son in music?

2—My daughter wants to drop her piano lessons; what shall I do?

3—What is Jazz?

4—Who are the great composers of Chicago?

5—Should classical and popular music be played in church?

6—How much time should a boy or girl going to grammar or high school put on his piano, violin or voice?

7—I am a voice student. Would you advise me to join our church choir?

8—How often should I have my piano tuned?

9—The boy in the next flat plays a saxophone for several hours every night. You know how I feel, but what can I do about it?

10—How old should my daughter be before she should take up her voice study?

These are ten questions asked by Mr. Mason. From time to time other questions will appear. Think them over. Many of them will be treated in his musical articles. If you have questions to ask about music send them in to the Southtown Economist and as time and space permits Mr. Mason will answer them.

MODEL YACHT CLUB SEEKS LARGER POND

Ogden Park's model yacht club met at the field house Friday to discuss plans for building and sailing model boats next year. Harry Kennedy, president of the organization, declared that Chicago was not able to compete favorably with clubs of other cities, and announced that steps would be taken to correct this situation. The universal rule was adopted for yacht sailing.

A committee, appointed to meet with the south park commissioners in an attempt to get a larger pond for next year, included the following: Mr. Drysdale, Mr. Hardy, George Baron, and Robert White sr.

In the south parks model yacht races Ogden took first place, Sherman second, and Calumet third. In the race of the larger boats, Ogden Park took the first four awards, George Baron, sailing "Adah" being first; Robert Stoellar, sailing "Stellar," second; Robert Granville, sailing "Nemesis," third; and Harry Kennedy, fourth. Robert White jr., sailing his "Ogden," took first place in the thirty-inch water line boat race.

D., former president of Elmhurst college, now is pastor of Immanuel Evangelical church, 70th st. and Michigan ave., in which he was married twenty-one years ago to one of its members, Miss Louise Wagner, by his father, the Rev. ## STUDENT TAKES TRIP TO INDIA, SECRETARY TO METHODIST BISHOP

WALTER MUELLER RECEIVES RECOGNITION; MAY ATTEND OXFORD

Walter Mueller

A stirring speech at the Methodist Conference at Springfield, Mass., last spring, and a worthy record as a leader of student thought at the University of Illinois and Northwestern were responsible for the appointment of Walter Mueller, 7008 Morgan st., to the position of secretary and assistant to Bishop Fisher of the Methodist Episcopal church on his trip to India this fall.

Mr. Mueller during his high-school days at Parker, attended the Auburn Park M. E. church. He was first interested in the Y. M. C. A. at the University of Illinois, and was made president of that organization. At the same time he held a minor office in the Student Fellowship for Christian Service club, and it was for this body that he attended student conferences in Indianapolis and New York. Later at Springfield and again, by request, at Louisville, he summed up the findings of the conference in the speech that won for him his present position.

An opportunity to meet great leaders and possibly a chance to continue his studies at Oxford, England, are in store for Mr. Mueller during the three or four years of his work with Bishop Fisher.

Mr. Mueller left for India on August 14, arrived in China on September 5 and is undoubtedly in India by this time.

His theological course has been postponed indefinitely, but, in his own words, "the possibilities for service in an opportunity of this kind are too great to be overlooked."

The huge structure, built of red cut bricks, trimmed with sandstone, was designed by Architect James Burns, 61 W. Randolph st. English gothic style is being used, the main part of the interior carrying out the churchly idea in its cross shape, with the chancel forming the head. An L-shaped extension at the rear provides for the priests' sanctuaries.

Plastering will be begun soon, but the date of completion is still uncertain, the architect said this week. The cornerstone was laid in 1923.

Art glass windows, elaborate interior decorations, and carved statuary on the exterior, will make the completed structure one of great attractiveness and inspiring beauty. Joslyn brothers are now placing the finishing touches on the stone work, which tops the two spires rising on each side of the entrance.

"STICKS" "MANAGER" OF GLUE BUSINESS .. TO TUNE OF $500

POLICE SEARCHING FOR HARRIS, WHOSE FACTORY AND COMPANY PROVE BOGUS

Nicholas C. Weinold, 7253 Morgan st., lost $500 to a confidence man Friday, who employed him as "district manager" of the Illinois and Indiana territory of the "California Glue company." The money was to be used by Weinhold to "finance himself" in merchandising the product, but his employer, who gave the name of W. R. Harris, appropriated it and fled.

Harris got in touch with Weinold through a classified advertisement that appeared in a daily paper of Wednesday. It was a blind ad stating that a district sales manager was wanted with sufficient money to finance himself. Weinold answered the advertisement and Friday Harris got in touch with him. Harris had rented part of an office in the Delaware building at 36 W. Randolph st., and Weinold visited him there.

The proposition offered by Harris seemed to have its merits and Weinold withdrew the money from the Guaranty Trust and Savings bank. He gave it to Harris, who claimed that Weinold was the nineteenth man he had hired under similar circumstances, and a contract was drawn up.

Weinold went with Harris to a small shop that he had set up at 14 N. Waverly ave. and the project was further explained. Then both went to a printing shop and ordered stationery and to a tin shop were containers needed for the product were ordered.

Weinold was told to meet Harris the following morning at 1147 W. Washington Blvd., where the latter stated he roomed. When Weinold went there he was informed that no one by the name of Harris had ever lived there. Weinold investigated and found that the shop was left deserted and unlocked.

It was also discovered that Harris had left his office in the Delaware building. Weinold reported to the Englewood police and they started a search for the confidence man.

CHARGE AUTO DRIVER WITH MANSLAUGHTER

William Russ, 11436 Eggleston ave., driver of the automobile that struck and killed Mrs. Harriet McKeever, 53 years old, 1044 W. 69th st., at 69th st. and Western ave. Sunday, was charged Tuesday with manslaughter by the Englewood police.

Mrs. McKeever was crossing Western ave. from east to west when the accident occurred and Russ was driving his machine south. The woman was taken to St. Bernard's hospital by Stanley Gumula of Phoenix, Ill. Physicians at the hospital pronounced her dead.

Russ was taken into custody by the police and held without being booked.

No marks of identification were found on Mrs. McKeever's person and until Monday afternoon the body was unidentified. Her daughter reported her disappearance and when a description was given Officer Edward Stepek at the Englewood station he connected the incident with the dead woman. He informed Mrs. McKeever's daughter that her mother was injured and told her to report to the police station. Instead, she went to the hospital and identified the body.

The inquest was continued and then formal charges were lodged against Russ. He is to be arraigned in the Grand Crossing court today, Wednesday.

HARPER LUNCHROOM IS FOR JUNIOR STUDENTS

Patronage of the lunchroom which is to be opened early next week at Harper junior high school, will be limited to junior high school students only, according to present instructions under which its manager is proceeding.

"No student will be forced to purchase his noonday meal there, W. J. Harrower, principal, stated Tuesday. "The lunchroom is designed to serve students who come from a distance to attend this school. Younger children living in the immediate neighborhood are sufficiently close to the building to get their lunch at home within the noon hour."

The statement refutes reports that all children would be forced to eat in the lunchroom.

Mrs. Mabelle Ehlers will have charge of the place. She has arranged to supply simple articles of diet temporarily until the lunchroom is better equipped to provide a more elaborate menu. Unless shortage of room forbids, junior high school students who carry their lunch from home will be welcome to dine in the portables housing the lunchroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Alec Hug and daughter, Charlotte, 7013 Lowe ave., have moved to 629 W. Marquette rd. They have resided in Auburn Park for many years.

Prep Gridiron Followers Await Start of League Race

OPENING GAMES PROMISE TO BE HARD FOUGHT

Tilden-Lindblom Clash will Feature Curtain Raisers

Saturday marks the opening of the Chicago high school football league schedule and interest of prep gridiron followers is centered on the initial tilts which will cast some light on the comparative strength of the teams in the championship race.

The Parker-Waller tilt is the only game that will be played in the "B" division of the league which includes those schools with an enrollment of less than 1,000. Parker's surprising victory over St. Rita makes the green jerseyed lads a heavy favorite in the game with the northsiders, who have never been especially formidable. Coach Wasserman's boys are out after the title in their division again this year and expect to get off with a flying start by mowing down Waller.

Morgan Park was scheduled to visit Wendell Phillips but since an enclosed field could not be secured the game has been postponed until October 25, when White City park can be obtained

Games between Lindblom and Tilden and Englewood and Hyde Park will be event attractions in the south section of the large school's circuit. A third game is carded between Bowen and Harrison but this is not expected to be such a drawing card, as neither team is rated as a strong championship contender.

Indications are that the Lindblom-Tilden combat will be the most brilliant. Coach Moore has a fast, heavy squad that has been very successful in practice games. The Maroon and Gold has scored victories over Emmerson high of Gary, Indiana, state champs last year, Deerfield high, and battled to a scoreless deadlock with the preps of Kalamazoo.

Tilden also looms up a strong team and Coach Louis Berger is wasting no effort in an attempt to bring a football championship to the tech school before he resigns and takes up a position as physical director of the Covenant club

An easy time is prophesied for Englewood, for Hyde Park has none too bright an outlook. Butch Scanlon, Stony Island ave. mentor, has practically an unexperienced eleven, while most of the Purple squad are veterans. Coach Palmer's crew has not scored in any practice game, both their pre-league tilts ending in 0-0 ties and now they are more than determined to cross Hyde Park's goal line for victory.

Although not seriously considered in the title race, Harrison appears to have a stronger team than usual and Bowen will be given a hard battle.

TWO TEAMS TIED FOR PINNACLE AT KAY-BEE

Fredell of the Golden Rods set new high individual marks for both high single games and high average for three games. His total was 657-219 and his high game, 259.

HAMILTON GIRLS ARE DISTRICT CHAMPIONS

Playing in the volley ball tournament of the Chicago Playground council which opened Saturday at Grand Crossing Park Hamilton Park's junior girls' team won the district championship. By defeating Fiske school playground and Grand Crossing the girls took first place and will enter the city finals at Grant Park later this month.

Hamilton's intermediate boys' team lost to Fiske playground Saturday after winning from McCosh by forfeiture. The junior boys' and senior girls' teams competed in Monday afternoon's contests, while the senior boys' competition will be played off Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Men's gymnasium classes will open Monday evening, also.

Berkowitz, Tilden's speedy halfback, is seen here gaining twelve yards on an off tackle smash in the game with the Benld, Ill. preps Saturday. He was the most consistent ground gainer for the Techs, who emerged victorious by a 12 to 2 count. —Economist Photo

POINT GAIN ON KICK AFTER TOUCHDOWN NETS CLOSE VICTORY

By the margin of the point gained on the kick after touchdown, the Young People's Club of Englewood gridders, won their opening game from the Independence Blues at Independence park Sunday, 14 to 13. The Blues lost only one game last year and this was to the locals. The northsiders put up a hard fight for revenge but when Casey was injured and left the lineup, the Blues weakened in offensive work.

After the Blues received the kickoff and by plunging through the line they carried the ball to the Club's fifteen yard marked. A fumble spoiled the home squad's chances here for Guberman snatched up the oval and sprinted to midfield before downed. From this point, with Musick and Clausen skirting the ends and Hasan plowing through the line, the club team brought the ball in position for Musick to score on a seven yard run through tackle. Clausen counted the extra point.

In the second quarter the Blues gained the ball in an advantageous position by intercepting a poorly tossed Club forward, and after a series of line plays, Smith scored. Casey made the point on a drop kick. Casey scored later in the period for the Blues after a repetition of line plunging tactics brought him close. On the try for the extra point the Club men broke through and blocked the punt Failure to register this cost the Blues the game.

Dave Guberman made the winning touchdown for the locals in the fourth period by recovering a blocked punt and diving across the line with two tacklers on him. Clausen's drop kick earned the winning point. Casey's absence weakened the strength of the Blues and the Club had an upper hand throughout the second half. The game ended with the ball in the Club's possession on the Blues' two yard line.

Lineups:

| Y.P.C.E. (14) | | Blues (13) |

AUBURN TRIANGLES NIP RESOLUTES, 19-6

Although outweighed, the Auburn Triangles smashed their way to a 19 to 6 victory over the Resolutes on their own field Sunday. Straight football tactics brought the Triangles most of their gains.

After intercepting a forward pass on his own ten yard line, Capt. Donovan sprinted ninety yards for the victors' first touchdown. O'Leary and Bonner made long gains through the Resolute forward wall and the latter plunged off tackle fifteen yards for a touchdown.

THE BOY IS AN EFFICIENT MECHANIC—IN HIS OWN MIND

You recall the split washers and the cotter pins in those pockets? Split washers plus cotter pins, plus a handy little screw-driver suggests mechanical interests. Every boy is a born mechanic at some period in his young life; he loves to fix things better than anything else in the world. Perhaps that is one reason why he is death on all sorts of mechanical contrivances—he wants to take them apart and look inside to see how it's made, what makes it go, and, incidentally, with the idea that beyond a question of a doubt he can improve it.

Watch for the dawning of the mechanic interest and feed it with directed activity. Through it a boy becomes interested in the endless and complicated machinery of modern life.

Perhaps you are one of the fathers who "tolerate" your boy's help in repairing the automobile or the light switch or the frozen pipes. Give the kid a chance to try his hand, ten chances to one he knows more about how to fix it than you do. Don't overlook the fact that the mechanical interest is there, and that it will die unless it finds expression. It is nothing short of a tragedy for a boy to have split washers, cotter pins, nails, screws and innumerable other little do-dads in his pockets and have no place in which to build them into something constructive. It is just like a bird flying about, day in and day out, with a half dozen choice bits of straw in her mouth, and no place to build a nest. What a pity. Some sort of a simple makeshift shop is an absolute necessity to a growing boy

Newborn interests that are not cultivated and kept growing, die—die for lack of exercise and expression, and in their death often passes the very best of what the boy might ultimately become. Die often because busy, unimaginative parents have no idea, in the first place, that such interests exist; and, in the second place, because it is too much trouble to provide constructive channels for the expression of these interests

See to it that your boy not only has mechanical toys, but also a few mechanical tools and a bit of a place to work, simple and crude, though it may have to be. Along with these he needs a sympathetic Dad who appreciates the fun of a radio or an electric train or a homemade steam engine. Also let there be a few choice "how-to-do-it" handy books to suggest new ideas and to explain perplexing "Whys." And if the family pocketbook, along with the boy's own nickels, can afford it, let there be a first-class mechanical magazine. Boys fairly eat them up, absolutely wear them out. Henry Ford believes in allowing the boy to invest his money in useful, constructive hobby and mechanical interest supplies He insists that such money is absolutely "saved." Charge it all up to the boy's education. Such expenditures will prove in later years to be among your best investments. Many a boy has tinkered himself into a lifework.

STEAMROLLERS ROLL OVER GROGAN A. C.

After upsetting the season plans of the Chapmans by defeating them 13 to 0, the Steamrollers again displayed championship form by swamping the Grogan A. C. Sunday, 26 to 0. The Cardinals, an eleven which has not been upset in the past two years, is the Steamrollers' opponents for next Sunday.

FREARY COACHES BEARCATS

Joe Freary, former Cardinal player, is sending the reorganized Bearcats through a stiff practice twice a week and the eleven is carding games with some of the fastest 130lb pound gridders in the city. "Firpo" Joyce was elected to captain the team for the season.

HOPE, BETHEL AGAIN TIE IN LUTHERAN FINALS

Hope and Bethel played another tie game in the finals to decide the Lutheran league championship Sunday at Jones-Baumrucker park. After seven innings of play, when the teams were forced to give up the diamond, the score stood 5 all. Norman Raschke pitched a brilliant game for the south side squad, allowing only five hits, fanning fourteen and issuing only two walks. His mates gave him poor support and kept him from registering a win. Heck, the Bethel twirler, failed to hurl as well as Raschke but his team mates helped him out of danger with some flashy fielding.

St. Andrew's nine, from 37th st. and Hoyne ave., won the senior championship from Concordia, a north side team, 17 to 9 Ending of this series will allow Hope and Bethel to go the full route when they meet again next Sunday, on the same diamond. Hope has won one game and another victory will clinch the title.

PULLMAN TRIMS MORGAN

Pullman Tech gridders visited Morgan Park Saturday and swamped the local preps under a 13 to 0 count.

TILDEN TECHS SHOW CLASS TO TROUNCE BENLD

Losers, Claimants to Downstate Title, Not Beaten in Three Years

Coach Berger's Yellow Jackets proved that Tilden will be a formidable contender to prep honors Saturday at Normal park, when they decisively defeated the high school eleven from Benld, Ill., 12 to 2. The visitors, who claim the southern Illinois title, had not been defeated in the past three years and during the time had hooked up with some of the fastest prep teams in St. Louis.

Lutz's kicking and passing and Berkowitz's spectacular broken field running was the individual work that aided the Techs to victory.

Tilden scored after a few minutes of play The locals got the kickoff and Benld was unable to gain. Tilden got the pigskin and Berkowitz tore off a long gain of 25 yards. Then Lutz nabbed a pass from Collins and plunged to the one yard line. On the first play from this point Berkowitz smashed through and over Benld's goal line.

The Techs threatened to score again in the same quarter by working their way to the visitor's ten yard marker but when holding brought a fifteen yard penalty they were forced to pass up the opportunity.

No threatening attempts to score were made by either team in the second quarter. Tilden made some long gains on Lutz's passes but Gerbus, Benld's fullback, evened things up by gaining considerable ground on end runs.

Benld's two points were made in the third quarter. The downstaters punted and Berkowitz, thinking the ball would roll over the line, waited before he picked it up. It stopped in the field and when Berkowitz got it the visitors rushed him back of his own goal posts.

Tilden scored again in the same session. Blocking a punt on the eleven yard line, Coach Berger's crew got in possession of the pigskin. Lutz went across on the first play.

Pass after pass was tried by the visitor in a desperate attempt to gain in the second half but they never completed one of these aerials. One of the forwards was intercepted by Steeve who made twenty yards before he was downed. Boggrove played brilliantly in this session, returning most of the punts a distance of forty-five yards.

MOHAWKS HANDED LOSS BY SOUTHTOWN LIGHTS

Although set back, 6-0, Sunday by the Southtown Lights, the Mohawk eleven are still carrying their heads high. Their record thus far this season is one win, one defeat and one tie. The Hottentots were 6-0 victims recently and the Englewood Boosters were the squad held even.

Last Sunday's battle was a toss-up until Jimmy Smyth, star end of the Mohawks, suffered a broken nose and left a big gap in the lineup.

OGDEN PARK CHAPTER WINS BUILDERS' TITLE

Five Hits in a Row Give Victors Early Lead in Title Contest

Five hits in succession, starting with Burke, gave Ogden Park three runs and a lead from which they were never headed in the game for the city championship of the Builders' league with D. C. Crigier Chapter at Ogden Park Saturday. The game went only eight rounds, being cut short by darkness, and the final count was 11 to 6.

Ogden slammed out thirteen hits while the visitors collected only marred the fielding. "Nig" Hogstrom, marred the fielding. 'Nig" Hogstrom, Ogden's twirler, had little difficulty in stopping the nine from the northwest side but when his mates piled up a commanding lead he eased up in the last two innings. It was in these frames that Crigier scored five tallies.

Swanson took batting honors by sailing out two triples and as many doubles in five trips to the plate. Ogden's lineup included "Howie" Dahl, who covered the short stop's place with Englewood high this spring, and "Bib" Wahlen and "Lefty" McLean, members of Lindblom city prep championship nine in 1923.

The Ogden Park team, coached by Charles Brunzel and managed by Henry Hanburg, won all their fourteen league games.

SEVEN TEAMS BUNCHED FOR PIN RACE LEAD AT BRUCK'S ALLEYS

ERNIE'S LUNCH DROPS THREE GAMES AND FALLS TO SECOND POSITION

A falling off of team scores and bunching of seven teams at the top of the league standing marked last Wednesday's games in Bruck's bowling league. Ernie's Lunch was pulled from the lead by the Birks and three clubs are tied for first and four for second, the Rubinis being at the top of the heap. There were several exciting matches, the one attracting the most attention being that in which Jack Bruck's Englewood Cleaners took the first two games from his brother Pete's Peterson & Lenz outfit, but lost the final 951 to 988. This was one of the few occasions when the Cleaners bested their greatest rivals. Hennig did the heavy work for the winners, shooting 611 while his mate, Joe Reynolds, turned in a fine series of 598. Doc Maas had 574. Al Pape of the losers was high gun for both teams when he knocked down 619 pins. Berghans got 248 in his final for the highest single game of the night, winning the dollar and totalling 587.

The John M. Lees took the second game from the strong Rubinis, this being their first win of the season, but were away behind in the other two. Holmes of the winners started with 233 and the buck to total 601, the only double century of the match. Hanlon held his average with 585. Eddie Boyle was the star for the losers, shooting 562, closely followed by Witthoft with 558.

Birk's beverage took the whole series from Ernie's Lunch who were leading the parade. The first by a three pin margin, the second by forty and the last by a hundred. The Birks' last game, 1023, was highest of the night and their 2907 topped the team totals. Phil Wolf showed the way to the whole bunch with 634 and copped the prize money with 243. Tom Reynolds was right there with 595 and Brennan with 565. Spencer's 583 led the losers while Shaw dropped a little with 570.

The W. C. Booterys nosed out the Stangle Tailors by two pins, won the second by a hundred and the last by eleven. The Stangles haven't won any games yet but they are getting closer. Scheer of the Tailors copped the prize money with 222 and was leading scorer, totaling 585. Bauerle backed him up with 516. For the Booterys, the heavy work was done by Ohman and Guston with 566 and 565, respectively. Nolhs totalled 517.

DRISCOLL'S FORTY YARD DROP KICK EARNS WIN FOR CARDINALS

KOEHLER'S DEFENSIVE WORK KEEPS GREEN BAY FROM SCORING

Paddy Driscoll's forty yard field goal in the opening minutes of play gave the Chicago Cardinals the points necessary to trim the Green Bay Packers, 3 to 0, in the second game of the National Football association at Normal Park Sunday. It was the wonderful defensive work of Bob Koehler that enabled Chris O'Brien's eleven to register the victory on three points.

Using a well developed aerial attack the Packers twice got to the locals five-yard line but when they tried line smashes Koehler was in on every play and downed the man carrying the ball.

Voss, who was elected to carry the ball on most of these line plunges, was Koehler's target and the Cardinal fullback never missed. Although the Cardinals were able to stop the Packers when the Wisconsin town gridders tried to make holes in the line the locals were not match for the visitors aerial attack. The combination of Lambeau to Voss brought the Packers lengthy gains and once Voss nabbed a pass with an open field in front of him but when he turned he fumbled the pigskin.

Driscoll's drop kick was perfect although a heavy wind was against him. The ball sailed squarely between the goal posts.

The Cardinals will begin using White Sox Park next Sunday. Their first game on the new field will be against the Minneapolis Marines.

A children's class in doll dress making is also being conducted by Miss Winn, who expects to teach other subjects later which will be of interest to both women and children.

MARION TEGTMEYER AGAIN TENNIS CHAMP

Experience and good form came out ahead when Marion Tegtmeyer, 7451 Stewart ave., won the final match from Helen McBride in the fall tennis tournament of the Chicago Normal College Thursday.

Although Miss Tegtmeyer played her way up through a field of forty-six entrants, she was not forced to display her best brand of tennis until the first set of the final match. An unfailing return and speedy service guaranteed her the college title for the second time with a score of 6-3, 6-0.

"I am as much pleased with the number of girls who signed up for the tournament as with the results," said Miss N. Bussell, head of the department of physical education at the college.

Players and rooters at Hamilton Park during the two weeks of the tournament were numerous.

Matches with other colleges are being planned for the coming year by Miss Tegtmeyer, manager of the tennis team, among them a return game with Wheaton College, whom they played last spring.

The girls who make up the team are: Miss Tegtmeyer, Sue Mechtersheimer, 10200 Parnell ave.; Miss McBride of River Forest, Frances Hillmeyer, Blanche McHugh, and Helen [illegible]bermann, 6130 May st.

Out of the Rough

By Fred S. Gliebe

SELECTION OF CLUBS

One starting to play the game of golf is more or less concerned about the kind and number of sticks required. Information and advice is eagerly sought from any one he may meet who plays. In the end, he has a lot of conflicting information which generally proves costly to the player

I recommend that a player starting out buy at least four clubs, namely, a brassie, midiron, mashie and putter. It is advisable to have these clubs be of the best material rather than the cheapest clubs obtainable. Purchasing clubs of good material does not necessarily mean the most expensive kind as these have fancy heads, ivory inlay faced, patented brass back and other things that add to the cost, but do not add to the efficiency of the club.

If your outlay would allow the selection of five clubs, I would suggest a driver, spoon, midiron, mashie and putter. For the sixth club I would add a mashie niblick and the seventh, a mashie iron.

A competent professional and club maker can determine quickly by observing your swing what kind of clubs will be most suitable for you as to weight, lie and length. This service is of real value to the beginner and will more than offset any difference in cost of the clubs purchased at store sales.

He can give you a thorough understanding of the difference between the various priced clubs and you can make your selection accordingly.

The best club will not make a good shot but it will help you, so do not put the entire responsibility of your game on the clubs. Your clubs are very much a permanent investment and a good one will give full service for a number of years, withstanding the strain of your early play.

BURGLARS GET $6,000 "HAUL" AT EASTMAN'S

Friday Night Thieves Take Entire Children's Furnishings Stock

Practically the entire stock of children's furnishings in the Eastman Juvenile shop, 7710 Halsted st., some $6,000 worth, was cleaned out by expert thieves who entered some time after midnight Friday by cutting the bars on the windows at the back of the place.

The "haul," one of the largest to be made in Auburn Park for a number of years, consisted of 700 children's coats, 375 dresses and 300 suits. Only a suit, a coat, and three dresses were dropped by the thieves in carrying out the loot, indicating leisurely work. The furniture and infants' wear stocks were not touched.

That the work was done by experienced operators was evidenced by the fact that Burns detectives, and police detectives who are still working on the case, have been unable to discover a single clue that could be followed.

Seemingly, no one in the vicinity either heard or saw anything of the intruders. When Mr. and Mrs. James Eastman came to open the shop Saturday morning they found the back door open.

The theft is a complete loss, since no burglary insurance was carried. The Eastmans opened the Auburn Park business about two years ago, Mr. Eastman being previously connected with an Englewood concern.

Mr. and Mrs. Eastman left Sunday noon for New York, where they intend duplicating their stock completely and returning to again open their shop for business Thursday.

"Those customers who left orders but had not called for their purchases, or had inspected goods with a view to buying later, need not fear but what we will be able to care for them," said Mr. Eastman before he left. "We will replace the stock completely."

MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM CAST CHOSEN

Daily rehearsals are being held at Englewood high school in preparation for the presentation of Shakespeare's "Midsummer Night's Dream" late in November. Under the direction of Miss Margaret Froning, dramatic coach, a cast of ninety, including fairies and choruses, will give three performances of the comedy, two evening and one matinee.

The principal characters will be Hermia, Inez Agadstein; Lysander, Cornelius McCurry; Helena, Frayda Klawans; Demetrius, Mark Marcus; Oberon, Robert McKinley; Titania, Alice Anderson; Thesus, Filmore Summerfield; Hippolita, Hilda Blondski; Puck Flossie Mayer.

EAT SODAS, PRODUCE REVOLVERS, GET $30

Instead of paying Paul M. Kepner, proprietor of a drug store at 500 W. 79th st., for sodas they purchased in his place Tuesday night, four youths held him up and took $30 from the cash register and from his person. One of the bandits carried a revolver. With a warning not to follow them, the bandits fled. Kepner, in reporting to the police, could describe only the bandit that was armed. He was unable to tell whether or not they made their escape in an auto.

TWO HOLDUPS BEFORE SCHOOL AS EVENING CLASSES DISMISSED

THINKING BANDITS ARE PUPILS ASKING "LIFT," VICTIMS OFFER NO RESISTANCE

Under similar circumstances, two robberies occurred in front of the Englewood high school within twenty-four hours last week.

William Collins, 7931 St. Lawrence ave., was the first victim. Passing the school at the time of the dismissal of the evening sessions Tuesday night, three youths ran out on the street and jumped on his car.

Thinking they were students who wanted a "lift" he offered no resistance until they climbed into the machine. Once inside the car one of the trio pressed a gun to his head and forced him to drive to 57th and Sangamon sts.

Here Collins was robbed of $11 and one of the bandits took the wheel of the machine. Collins was forced to tell his home address and the threat that if he reported to the police immediately he would be assaulted when he returned home was made. Then they drove off in the car.

Since the neighborhood in which he lives is sparsely built up Collins feared the bandits would carry out the threat and did not give a report to the Englewood police until the following morning.

Wednesday night, when the street again was thronged with students, four youths jumped on the running board of the car of Ferdinand Schultz, 9421 South Park ave., as he drove past. He, too, offered no resistance and was held up. He drove to 60th and Wallace sts., as he was commanded, and there relinquished his automobile and $5.75.

Descriptions of the bandits in both robberies tallied somewhat, but the Englewood police doubt whether it was the same gang that staged both holdups since it is scarcely probable that they would return to the scene the following evening

SALVATION ARMY STARTS SERVICE DRIVE

The annual Home Service Appeal of the Salvation Army in Chicago, got under way on Monday, October 6, as several thousand volunteer workers went out to obtain the funds necessary to carry on the Army's activities for the next twelve months. The campaign will last thre weeks.

The budget for the next twelve months, as passed by the organization's advisory board of prominent men and women, is $319,000.

The largest item in it is $60,000 for emergency relief, under which comes the Salvation Army's answer to hurry calls for food, shelter, fuel, clothing in zero weather, and the scores of other immediate needs which are supplied daily.

$45,000 is the sum called for in the budget to lift the indebtedness on the new women's home and hospital at 5018 N. Crawford ave. The home is a shelter in time of distress for unmarried mothers and thei babies, regardless of race or creed.

Other times in the budget include $10,000 for summer outings for children and mothers of the slums; $10,000 for additional equipment at the Upper Camp Lake Fresh Air camp opened last year by Chicago headquarters of the Salvation Army; $44,000 for the budgets of twenty Chicago corps, including local relief, salaries of fifty officers, rent, light and heat; $35,000 for territorial headquarters, under which comes training of officers, administration of welfare work, and similar duties; $40,000 for the special efforts department; $15,000 for the disabled officers' fund; $5,000 for Chicago's share in operating state divisional headquarters.

YOUR HOME'S INTERIOR

By G. M. TENCATE

knowledge of the effect and value of color is the most important factor in building the background of your rooms. Haphazard combinations are utterly unrestful and disturbing but all in the beauty of other well chosen furnishings in the home.

This does not mean that everything in a room must be of the same color. Such colors should be used and be exercised to have the best influence and not crash.

The pattern in wall paper and draperies must also be carefully considered. If a room is small plain paper or one with a satin stripe will add size to its appearance. Draperies should be of lightweight material either in plain stripe or solid color. Light colors are important in these if the size of the room is to be apparently increased. Where plain colors are chosen these should be trimmed with fringe or edging of a contrasting color otherwise there will be monotony in the tones and the result will be that the beholder will tire of the draperies in a short time. Choice of colors for a room should be made on the basis of enduring attractiveness. Bright colors appeal at once to most people but readily become tiresome. A few lively tones will look well in the smaller furnishings such as fancy pillows and small table scarfs. Lamp shades admit of brilliance in color. It is well to remember that loganberry appeals longer than plain red and antique gold will endure longer than bright yellow.

Dead shades are as dangerous in decorations for the home as the forbidden bright tones. One of the reasons for the importance of draperies and carpets in a decorative scheme is their possibility for contributing bright notes of color to an otherwise somber interior.

Selection of rugs should be made with a view to giving warmth and a quality of life to a room. Plain rugs should be chosen for the small room. The same type is required for the elaborately furnished room. The wrong taste in choosing rugs can make a room full of excellent furniture resemble a display room in a furniture shop.

Exposures, size, shape and height of a room must all be considered when selecting the furnishings. This department will answer inquiries if questions are submitted.

[George M. Tencate, Auburn Park interior decorator, will contribute weekly articles on interior decorating in which he will give practical information on the problems that beset the housewife in furnishing her home.

Mr. Tencate has been in the drapery business for three years in Auburn Park and previous to that time was with the interior decorating departments of Carson Pirie Scott and company, Chicago, and John Wanamaker's, New York. He has been in that line of business in Berlin, Germany. Experience in interior decorating and drapery was gained by Mr. Tencate in Holland. There his father and three others are following similar professions at present. His grandfather also was an interior decorator so Mr. Tencate is specially conversant with the work having been closely identified with it since childhood.

His article next week will deal with new [illegible] decorating [illegible] of Southwest [illegible] room—[illegible] Note.]

Coffee Cake

Mrs. S. M. Foster, 8010 Carpenter st., contributes this recipe for coffee cake which she says is "lovely for lunches when eaten fresh." Picnic season is not yet past yet the weather is cool enough to make baking not unpleasant so the home-baker should welcome this suggestion.

Her ingredients are ½ cup sugar, 1 egg, pinch of salt, 1 cup sour milk or 1 cup sweet milk, ½ teaspoon soda if sour milk is used or 2 teaspoons baking powder if sweet milk is preferred, a few raisins (if you care for them), 2¼ cups flour. Melt butter size of egg and add to the other components. Spread on tin. Cover with a little butter, sprinkle sugar and cinnamon over top and bake.

Filled Peppers

A palatable means of disguising hamburger steak or leftover meat scraps has been discovered by Mrs. William Westenberger, 5658 Hermitage ave. Her recipe calls for 2 pounds chopped beef, ½ cup rice, 1 onion, salt and pepper. Stuff sweet peppers with this mixture after removing seeds from the peppers. When filled, boil ½ to ¾ hour in salt water.

Over the peppers she then pours a sauce made as follows: Melt 1 tablespoon butter, 1 tablespoon flour, add 1 can tomato soup and ½ pint bottle cream. Drain water off peppers, leaving about 1 cup of the liquid. Add the sauce, boil few minutes, and serve.

Lemon Pie

Lemon pie—m-mum! Make your tongue tingle to think of it. Mrs. M. H. Dugger, 6127 Stewart ave., finds it a family favorite but has an original method of preparation, baking the custard filling with the crust instead of adding the filling to the shell.

2 egg yolks, 1 cup sugar, juice of 1 lemon and 2 tablespoons flour are mixed thoroughly. The whites of the eggs beaten stiff, are folded into the mixture, which is put into the crust and baked slowly.

Spice Cookies

Mrs. Charles A. Terriere, 7647 Stewart ave., likes an occasional "batch" of cookies prepared by the following recipe.

Two thirds cup butter, 1½ cups sugar, 2 eggs, 1 cup seeded raisins, 2½ cups flour, 1 level teaspoon each of cinnamon, cloves and nutmeg, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon soda, 3 tablespoons sour milk.

Cream butter, sugar and eggs. Add raisins chopped fine, spices, flour and sour milk alternately. Mix thoroughly and drop by teaspoonsful on buttered sheet to bake.

CARE OF THE FACE

At the National Hair-dressers' convention there was a new note sounded when the subject of facials was introduced. A famous skin specialist made the statement that he had discovered a distinct type that has developed as an aftermath of prohibition. He said that women are drinking more now than they ever did before and, of course, they are drinking inferior liquors which are ruining their faces. This expert says the muscles of their faces sag particularly under the eyes and the chin and neck muscles. He says even the eyes and the color of the hair is being affected. He called it the "synthetic face."

Now I don't have occasion to meet this type in my shop and among my readers for out here we are all home-loving, law-abiding citizens—but in recalling different subjects of discussion which were presented at the convention—the above came to mind and I wanted to tell my readers about it. I promised to tell you all the news and give you the benefit of all that was discussed and demonstrated, so of course as I happen to remember these things I jot them down to pass on to you.

However while I am about it I decided that facial care would be a very good subject for today's article. First, do you ever ask yourself these questions. What is the trouble with my skin? Is it in good condition? Am I using the right powder? Or rouge? Or cream? Am I cleansing it correctly? Is my diet helping to beautify my skin or is it making my complexion less beautiful than it should be?

Remember your complexion is like a very delicate hot-house plant and it is also your most precious possession. The hot-house plant must be cared for very tenderly or it will die—your skin must be cared for religiously or the bloom will leave it permanently. It is your most precious possession because once lost it can never be regained in the same manner as it was. True, we can do wonderful things by massage, and correct manipulations and the use of good creams and lotions, but a skin, once it has been abused or neglected can never be quite as lovely as it was originally and that is why we emphasize the warning—KEEP YOUR BEAUTY WHILE IT IS STILL WITHIN YOUR POWER TO DO SO. It is the same idea as weight reduction. We all know that it is easier to stay thin than it is to get thin after you have piled on the excess.

The greatest single beauty aid is cream. Use it generously. Use it constantly! As we grow older the natural moisture and oil will dry out of the skin and leave it dry and withered and wrinkled. To prevent this you must be feeding cream into your pores religiously every day—this will replace the natural moisture and keep your skin soft and smooth and fine-grained in texture.

An occasional facial massage works wonders. Every inch of your body needs exercise—you know that as well as I do. In some way or other you manage to do this, in walking and bending and stretching or in playing various games like golf and tennis. But what exercises do your facial muscles get outside of swimming? You laugh and talk that's true, but laughing and talking is not a strenuous enough action. The next best thing is artificial means or, in other words, massage and manipulation with the finger tips to rouse the circulation and harden the muscles. This brings the blood to the surface and tightens the muscles so they won't sag and wrinkle.

Don't use a rouge because your best friend uses it. She may be blond and you brunette. Don't use powder that is two shades lighter than your skin. Be logical in your choice of cosmetics and above all be particular to know that they are good and contain no harmful ingredients. Better to pay a little more and protect your skin. However, in the case of powder, it is often a less expensive powder which is best for the white-lead which is so harmful is also very high in price. Its function is to form a heavy base so the powder will stay on. Good creams are expensive of course but they are well worth the investment.

In conclusion let me say just this. You have but one face—take care of it. If you have been endowed with beauty—hold fast to it and if you haven't then make the best of your good points and improve upon them if possible.

ANSWERS

Sylvia: Send me a stamped-addressed envelope and repeat your request and I will gladly send you a personal reply.

E. M. B.—Yours is a case which requires a physician's care. It does not come within the scope of our work and a beauty specialist who is really conscientious would never have attempted to treat you.

SHURA RULOWA AND HER RUSSIAN BALLET
This Week—Keith's, Philadelphia, Pa.

No matter what we may think of Russia politically, everyone is agreed that from a terpsichorean standpoint the world concedes her to be supreme. Russia, the home of ballet dancing, has produced the most remarkable artists the world has ever seen. Each year with ever-increasing popularity the Russian school of dancing has brought forth new stars in the terpsichorean sky and proven to the public that Russia, beyond any doubt, has and probably always will produce the greatest dancers.

Shura Rulowa, with her Russian Ballet, brings to Washington a sextette of accomplished dancers, girls and men who present a characteristic group of solo dances, including the graceful and famous pirouette.

Of all the overwhelming number of Russian entertainers who have arrived in the United States following the "Chauve Souris," no entertainer has proven more popular than Shura Rulowa. The entire offering is highly artistic and the lovers of Theodore Kosloff and Anna Pavlowa will find nothing lacking in the work of Shura Rulowa and her ballet supreme.

The success of this sextette throughout the Keith Circuit proves that the American vaudeville public wants the best of everything.

PHILLIPS FURNITURE CO. TO OPEN ITS NEW BUILDING NEXT MONTH

SAMUEL PHILLIPS, OWNER AND COMMERCIAL PIONEER, RECALLS EARLY DAYS

His firm, the Phillips Furniture Co., about to move into its new three-story, balcony and basement building at 6614-6616 Halsted st., Samuel Phillips, pioneer Englewood merchant and a former president of the Englewood Business Men's association, is looking back over the years and noting how he kept progress with Englewood commercially.

And well he may, for 22 years ago, in 1902, he started at 63rd and Green sts., the second furniture store to be established in what is today the world's greatest retail furniture mart. His only predecessor, the Royal Furniture Co., until a year ago in the same location as Mr. Phillips' present business, 6308 Halsted, began business but six months before the Phillips Co. got under way.

From his present store, which he bought from the Royal company after he had spent two years traveling in Europe, following sale of his original business to the Hartman Furniture Co., to the new place a couple of blocks farther south is a far call, since the new building has nearly double the floor space of the present headquarters. The new total is approximately 21,000 square feet; the old, between 12,000 and 14,000.

The new structure will have its formal opening some time between the 1st and 10th of November. However, new stock will begin moving in this week. None of the merchandise in the old store will be moved, all being scheduled for early selling, either by the usual procedure or by auction.

To man the new store, a force of about thirty-five people, including many girls, will be employed. The present force is about fifteen.

The delivery facilities, too, will be increased. Two more trucks will be added to the existing fleet of two.

One of Mr. Phillips' most pleasant memories of the "olden days" is the distinction he enjoys of being the first business man to insert an advertisement in the original Englewood Economist, then a struggling infant. Needless to say he has been following precedent ever since.

How Spinal Defects Occur

MANY persons have asked how the spine can press the nerves and shut off the life-giving energy and cause weakness and disease in certain parts of the body. The spine protects the spinal cord through which energy passes from the brain to the net-work of nerves that supply every part of the body. The spine is made up of separate moveable parts that are easily displaced and are sensitive to every strain and jar.

Causes of the Fatal Pressure

In fact there are many contributory causes that lead to defective spines and they are present every day of life. Before, during and after birth the weak and tender spine is very easily affected. The manner in which a child sits at the school desk, or the position of the man or woman while at work is likely to cause defect and curvature. Strenuous games, active play, falls, blows, sudden twists, or strains from carrying or lifting heavy weights are all likely to throw the spine out of plumb. This brings about the fatal pressure upon the nerves and throttles or obstructs the life-giving nerve currents, thus leading to disease.

CHIROPRACTIC CORRECTS SPINAL DEFECTS

It lifts the pressure from the nerves, permitting them to nourish the famished, worn out and diseased tissues and organs. With normal nerve function restored, Nature brings about Healthy conditions in the organs effected. In
